

The Institute of Thai Studies, Chulalongkorn University

Announcement of ENITAS Scholarship

The Institute of Thai Studies, Chulalongkorn University is pleased to announce the 2018 ENITAS Scholarship awards.

| Name | Institution | Topic |
|------------------------|---|--|
| Bhadravarna Bongsasilp | University of Birmingham | Religious Heritage and Tourism in Bangkok: Use and Survival in an Urban Context |
| Gil D. Turingan | University of the Philippines-Diliman | Social Movements And Monuments: The “democracy” in the Democracy Monument of Thailand and the “people power” in the People Power Monument of the Philippines |
| Mohammad Hasan Ansori | State Islamic University of Syarif Hidayatullah | Examining the Practices and Policies of Malaysia and Thailand in Managing Refugee Crisis |
| Tamala Boonyakarn | Srinakharinwirot University | Borderland Experiences and Identities of Persons with Disabilities along the Thai border with Myanmar and Beyond |
| Tejendra Pherali | UCL Institute of Education, UCL | Social justice, education and Peacebuilding: A comparative analysis of educational inequalities in Cambodia and Thailand |
| Tu Cam Tran | Chulalongkorn University | Vietnam from the Poetic Perspective of Naowarat Pongpaiboon in “Khian phaendin Suwannaphum Vietnam” |
| Ying-kit Chan | Princeton University | Chineseness, Migration, and Diplomacy: Singapore Ambassadors to Thailand during Lee Kuan Yew’s Premiership (1965–1990) |

Please Note:

- The decision of the Committee is final.
- The presentation event will be held on 17th August 2018 in Bangkok.